Fields Corporation (Head office: Shibuya-ku; President and CEO: Hidetoshi Yamamoto) announces the nationwide release of Olympia Co., Ltd.'s new pachislot machine: "Kaiketsu Harimau."

This new pachislot machine features content from the serial TV drama "Kaiketsu Harimau," which was broadcast on Nippon Television Network from 1960 to 1961. The show garnered popularity as a tale of adventure in which a righteous hero named Harimau (which means "tiger" in Malay) helps common people suffering under tyranny.

The activities of the strong and kind hero Harimau and his friends are recreated in the new machine in a comical fashion, using exaggerated cartoon caricatures of the show's characters. With the new replay time system, called "Malay Tiger," players can enjoy lots of adventures and actions carried out by Harimau and company.

The new machine that revives the tale of this hero can be enjoyed not only by pachislot enthusiast, but also by a wide range of people, including fans of TV dramas.

"Kaiketsu Harimau" is scheduled for delivery in July 2007 to pachinko parlors throughout Japan.
