The originality and popularity of this “Ace Attorney” series does not only extend into game format – it has been developed into various formats such as comics, character goods and attractions. In addition, it was developed into stage format by the Takarazuka Revue in 2009 (performed as a trilogy until January 2013) and made into a live-action movie distributed by TOHO Co., Ltd. in 2012 (directed by Takashi Miike). Both of these works have been highly praised.
