1. Operating results

(1) Analysis of operating results

[1] Overview of operations for the year ended March 31, 2009

In pursuit of its corporate philosophy of “The Greatest Leisure for All People,” the Company has grown by identifying business possibilities through anticipating changes occurring among the public with regard to their lifestyles, environments, and more in response to their ever-increasing amount of leisure time. In particular, the Company recognizes the importance of digital content as it forms the foundation on which the Company establishes its competitive edge. Acting on this, in recent years the Company has invested and expanded in diverse fields of entertainment, ranging from games to sports, movies, animation, publishing, mobile phone content, etc. The idea is to acquire, create and develop copyrights (merchandising rights) that offer superior entertainment features applicable in the field of pachinko/pachislot machines, which forms the mainstay of the Company’s business, and content that open up new customer segments.

The market for leisure services today is experiencing a definite shift in its demand structure as consumers’ interests and tastes diversify, and is transitioning into one where consumers are particular about where to spend their leisure budget. The market is entering a time where consumers prioritize entertainment options that attract them most and focus their investment disproportionately.

Meanwhile, the pachinko industry faces the expectation that it will mature and become sound as it grows into a purveyor of entertainment that need not rely on the element of gambling in order to be chosen and supported by consumers selective in how and where to invest their leisure time. Within this perspective, exponential advances in the hardware development aspects of pachinko/pachislot machines, including graphics chips and LCD screens, have heightened the importance of what content to show on them. In the course of competition among the manufacturers of pachinko/pachislot machines, trends have become increasingly pronounced in favor of investing time into planning and development to supply exquisitely created machines. This has led to a climate where the acquisition of high-potential content and the enhancement of planning and development capabilities decide who wins and who loses.

In this business environment, for the year ended March 31, 2009 and on a consolidated basis, the Company posted net sales of ¥73,035 million and operating income of ¥1,960 million. Ordinary income was ¥991 million, which was impacted by foreign exchange fluctuations and an equity method investment loss, etc. as the global financial uncertainty hit the Game Field segment. For the year ended March 31, 2009, the Company also recognized extraordinary losses amounting to ¥3,840 million. These included a loss due to discontinued production incurred by a subsidiary, loss on liquidation of an affiliate resulting from the liquidation of a subsidiary, valuation loss on investment securities, and loss on sale of marketable securities, etc. As a result, net losses for the year ended March 31, 2009 amounted to ¥1,481 million.

Kaiji Act 2	December	2008	Rodeo Co., Ltd.

(Note) The total number of pachinko and pachislot machines sold includes the number of machines with titles other than those above sold via agency sales.

At pachinko halls nationwide, as the emphasis of operation shifted towards pachinko machines, hall operators have continued their effort to grow further as a leisure service provider for consumers who are becoming increasingly selective in how and where to invest their leisure time. In order to seek out new fan segments, hall operators have implemented a variety of business efforts including the adoption of pachinko machines rich in entertainment elements, a market approach of reducing the lease fee for pachinko balls, a fuller array of premiums they offer, and the improvement of play environment for users, etc. Meanwhile, manufactures have been promoting measures to enhance the soundness of the pachinko market, by making voluntary efforts to control the gambling nature of pachinko machines as the gambling element was previously on the rise.

During the year ended March 31, 2009, the industry voluntarily refrained from replacing machines out of consideration for the country's hosting of the G8 Summit at Lake Toya in July 2008. Despite this, the Company aggressively supplied the marketplace with machines with superior entertainment and gaming features to meet diverse needs in the market. While the pachinko machine sales business introduced a total of six new models, including CRA Neon Genesis Evangelion Premium Model, designed less for gambling than for playing for fun, and CR Seven Samurai, a new video entertainment experience, the pachislot machine sales business released five new models. In particular, Neon Genesis Evangelion—That time has come, now they're waiting for us, a new pachislot machine released in September 2008, was highly acclaimed in the marketplace and recorded blockbuster sales totaling 90,000 machines.

Although the major pachinko machine title, CR Neon Genesis Evangelion—The Beginning and the End, was initially planned to be released during the fourth quarter ended March 31, 2009, after consulting with alliance partners on sales strategy, the Company decided to delay the release and launch the product in April 2009, with a belief that the value of the merchandise would be further enhanced if supplied when purchasing appetite of pachinko halls is stronger.

As a result of the above, during the year ended March 31, 2009, with unit sales of pachinko machines amounting to 202,525 and unit sales of pachislot machines coming to 128,680, the Pachinko/Pachislot (PS) Field segment posted net sales of ¥55,724 million and operating income of ¥4,031 million.

2) Game Field segment

During the year ended March 31, 2009, D3 Inc., which was one of the Company's major subsidiaries, was impacted by a decline in sales of game software both in the domestic and overseas markets due to drastic recessions along with global financial uncertainty, etc. Although sales of the high-end game software of a collaboration title between D3 Inc. and the Company as well as overseas sales of the Ben10 series and the NARUTO series remained strong, this fell short of making up for the negative earnings impact and other issues resulting from the cost allocation by the Company for implementing a price protection program following slower growth in sales of darkSector, a title introduced late in the previous year by the D3 Inc. As a result of the above, the segment's results turned out to be sluggish.

thinkArts Co., Ltd., included in this segment, has been dissolved with its liquidation completed in March 2009, as described in the "Notification of Dissolution and Liquidation of Subsidiary Company" announced as of December 9, 2008. The Company tendered all shares held by the Company in D3 Inc. in acceptance of a tender offer commenced by NAMCO BANDAI Games Inc. as described in the "Notification of Deconsolidation of Subsidiary" as announced as of March 17, 2009. Upon the conclusion and completion of the tender offer, D3 Inc. was deconsolidated as a subsidiary of the Company as of March 24, 2009.

As a result of the above, the Game Field segment posted net sales of ¥12,593 million and operating loss of ¥1,289 million.

3) Sports Field segment

During the year ended March 31, 2009, the athlete management business reported continued strong results benefiting particularly from outstanding showings by athletes under contract. The Total Workout operation, a provider of sports solutions, inaugurated a branch in Fukuoka in April 2008, and sought to acquire new members. Meanwhile, the branch at Ebisubashi in Osaka was closed at the end of September 2008 under a program to review the current branch structure in order to make this business more profitable. Furthermore, drastic reviews were undertaken across the sports business, and reforms implemented particularly to scale down the rights business and to optimize personnel deployment, in accordance with a business restructuring plan.

As a result of the above, the Sports Field segment posted net sales of ¥3,589 million and operating loss of ¥537 million.

4) Movies Field segment

During the year ended March 31, 2009, two movies in whose production the Company has invested hit the screen. One film suffered a quite lackluster performance at the box office, and accordingly the Company has written off the equity investment in the first quarter (April–June). After the second quarter throughout the year ended March 31, 2009, no new investment project was initiated in the movies business.

Fields Pictures Corporation, included in this segment, has been absorbed and merged into the Company effective as of January 2009, as described in the “Announcement of Merger of Consolidated Subsidiary (Simplified/Short Form Merger)” announced as of November 6, 2008.

As a result of the above, the Movies Field segment posted net sales of ¥73 million and operating loss of ¥503 million.

5) Web Service Field segment

During the year ended March 31, 2009, a mobile content platform operated by FutureScope Corporation began offering two new services and focused efforts on putting the new service operation solidly on track. The company’s mainstay mobile content platform, Fields Mobile, continued to fare well, especially with its paying membership increasing constantly, benefiting from synergies with merchandise the Company has launched, and reaching approximately 430,000 (as of March 31, 2009) about two years after the start of service.

This segment information, which was included in the “Other Field segment” until the third quarter of the year ended March 31, 2009, has been separately presented as the “Web Service Field segment” because it was deemed to come under the requirements for significant information for disclosure at the end of the year ended March 31, 2009.

As a result of the above, the Web Service Field segment posted net sales of ¥1,609 million and operating income of ¥455 million.

6) Other Field segment

During the year ended March 31, 2009, Lucent Pictures Entertainment, Inc., a subsidiary for planning and production of animation, has implemented steady measures for the release of the next movies. Such measures included the participation at the Tokyo International Anime Fair, an establishment of a joint animation studio with STUDIO4°C Co., Ltd., development of a production environment and infrastructure to produce high-quality animation videos, etc.

White Trash Charms Japan Co., Ltd., included in this segment, has been absorbed and merged into the Company effective as of January 2009, as described in the “Announcement of Merger of Consolidated Subsidiary (Simplified/Short Form Merger)” announced as of November 6, 2008.

As a result of the above, the Other Field segment posted net sales of ¥56 million and operating loss of ¥176 million.

(Note) Net sales reported by the individual segments include gross of inter-group net sales or transfers.

[3] Forecast earnings for the year ending March 31, 2010 (April 1, 2009 to March 31, 2010)

The full-year forecast for the year ending March 31, 2010 is as follows:

(Unit: Million yen)

	Forecast for the year ending March 2010	Results for the year ended March 2009	Year-over-year change
Net sales	70,000	73,035	-4.2%
Operating income	10,000	1,960	+410.2%
Ordinary income	10,000	991	+909.1%
Net income	4,500	(1,481)	—

In April 2009, the Company implemented organizational changes in order to reorganize the functioning of the pachinko/pachislot field, the Company’s core business, and to foster an appropriate response to market conditions as well as prompt decision making and business execution. In particular, the planning and development functions have been further reinforced to provide the marketplace with merchandise with a competitive edge and superior entertainment elements by utilizing high-quality contents.

In the year ending March 31, 2010, as we expect operations of pachinko halls will continue to be focused on pachinko machines, we will limit the variety and invest time into planning and development to supply exquisitely created machines in the pachinko machine sales business. Indeed, the new pachinko machine from Bisty Co., Ltd., “CR Neon Genesis Evangelion—The Beginning and the End,” which was scheduled for release during the first quarter ending June 30, 2009, has already been introduced and received high acclaim in the marketplace. This title is expected to record the highest sales in the Evangelion series. The Company also plans to introduce the second additional innovative titles designed to create a new video entertainment experience during the next fiscal year. In the pachislot machine sales business, the Company will focus on the continued provision of merchandise centered on the popular titles while the environment for the pachislot market as a whole remains challenging.

On the group business strategy front, the Company has been restructuring its business portfolios. After reviewing each business segment, the Company has concentrated many management resources in the Pachinko/Pachislot (PS) Field segment, the Company's core business, and decided to temporarily put a curb on and reorganize the operations that require time before synergies with the Pachinko/Pachislot (PS) Field segment may be achieved as well as the investment in operations other than those that are in strategic areas that need to be developed until the Company is in a class of its own. In the next fiscal year, we are not anticipating income from the Game Field segment as a result of for example the sale of shares in D3 Inc. In fields such as sports, animation and mobile, we will establish a foundation for future growth in order to make advances as a pioneer in the leisure-type services for consumers who are becoming increasingly selective in how and where to invest their leisure time, while improving earnings quickly as we continue to create primary content and promote aggressive business development.

The Company regards the enhancement of corporate value as a principal management task, and its fundamental policy is to pay dividends at an appropriate level that corresponds with profits. The Company makes every effort to effectively use retained earnings for investments to enhance its financial condition, strengthen the management foundation, expand businesses continually and secure a competitive edge.

Given these factors for the year ended March 31, 2009, to realize the Company's basic management policy of "Shareholders First" despite the net losses incurred for the year ended March 31, 2009, the Company paid an interim dividend of ¥2,000 per share to shareholders and intends to distribute a year-end dividend of ¥2,500 per share.

With regard to the year ending March 2010, we intend to distribute an annual dividend per share of ¥4,500 (an interim dividend of ¥2,000 and a year-end dividend of ¥2,500).

- (Notes)
- Based on the proximity of merchandises and services or others provided, the Fields Corporation's businesses are segmented into Pachinko/Pachislot (PS) Field, Game Field and Other Field.
  - The major products or services in each segment are as follows:
    - Pachinko/Pachislot (PS) Field: Purchasing, sales, planning and development of pachinko/pachislot machines and related services
    - Game Field: Planning, development and sales of packaged software, such as game software
    - Other Field: Sports management and others
  - All operating expenses are allocated to individual segments, and thus none remain unallocated.
  - All assets are allocated to individual segments, and thus there are no assets that are regarded as being corporate assets.
  - As indicated in the "Basis of Presentation of the Consolidated Financial Statements (Change in the method of depreciation of tangible fixed assets)," at Field Corporation and its domestic consolidated subsidiaries, pursuant to the revisions to the Corporate Tax Law (the Partial Revision to the Corporate Tax Law, the 6th Law enacted on March 30, 2007, and the Ordinance for Partial Revision to the Cabinet Order Related to the Corporate Tax Law, the 83rd Ordinance on March 30, 2007), changed the method of depreciation of tangible fixed assets and now uses a method based on the revised Corporate Tax Law with regard to those assets acquired on and after April 1, 2007. Due to this change, operating expenses in the Pachinko/Pachislot (PS) Field segment, the Game Field segment and the Other Field segment increased ¥38 million, ¥1 million and ¥1 million, respectively, and operating income decreased by the corresponding amounts, compared with the previous accounting method.
  - Although Lucent Pictures Entertainment, Inc. (formerly Digital Lord Corporation) had been included in the Pachinko/Pachislot (PS) Field segment, since the second half of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2008, the company has been included in the Other Field segment because its principle business purposes shifted from the planning and development of graphic content software in the Pachinko/Pachislot (PS) Field segment to the planning and production of animation since the second half of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2008. The impact of this change on the segment information is immaterial.

- (Notes)
- Country and regional segments are based on geographic proximity.
  - Main countries or regions included in the Other Region segment: Europe, etc.
  - In previous years, the disclosure of segment information by region has been omitted because Japan accounted for more than 90% of total net sales in all segments. As Japan now accounts for less than 90% of total net sales, the Company has segmented the sales by region to separate and disclose the information in the segments called the Japan segment, the North America segment, and Other Region segment, respectively, effective with the year ended March 31, 2009.

3. Overseas sales

Fiscal year ended March 31, 2008 (April 1, 2007–March 31, 2008)

Because overseas sales accounted for less than 10% of the consolidated net sales, the disclosure of overseas sales has been omitted.

Fiscal year ended March 31, 2009 (April 1, 2008–March 31, 2009)

	Other region	Total
I. Overseas net sales (Million yen)	7,893	7,893
II. Consolidated net sales (Million yen)	—	73,035
III. Overseas net sales as a percentage of consolidated net sales (%)	10.8	10.8

- (Notes)
- Country and regional segments are based on geographic proximity.
  - Because the net sales in countries or regions other than Japan are insignificant, the amounts of net sales are stated collectively in the Other Region segment.
  - Main countries or regions included in the Other Region segment: North America, Europe, etc.
  - Overseas net sales are the net sales of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries in countries or regions other than Japan.
  - In previous years, the disclosure of overseas net sales has been omitted because overseas net sales accounted for less than 10% of the consolidated net sales. As overseas sales now account for more than 10% of the consolidated net sales, the Company has segmented overseas sales to separate and disclose the information in the Other Region segment, effective with the year ended March 31, 2009.

2. Method to estimate the fair unit price evaluated for stock options

The estimation method of the fair unit price of the stock options granted during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2008 is as follows.

(1) First 2008 stock options

[1] Evaluation method used: the Black-Scholes model

[2] Major basic values and method of estimate

Stock price volatility (Note 1)	56.56%
Estimated remaining period (Note 2)	4.51 years
Dividends estimated (Note 3)	¥600/share
No-risk interest rate (Note 4)	0.92%

- (Notes)
1. The stock price volatility was computed based on actual stock prices from July 6, 2003, to January 7, 2008.
  2. Given the difficulty in making a reasonable estimate without the sufficient accumulation of data, the estimate was made based on the assumption that the stock options are exercised around the halfway point of the exercise period of the options.
  3. The computation is based on actual dividends paid from January 1, 2007, to December 31, 2007.
  4. The yield rate of government bonds during the estimated remaining period.

(2) Second 2008 stock options

[1] Evaluation method used: the Black-Scholes model

[2] Major basic values and method of estimate

Stock price volatility (Note 1)	52.97%
Estimated remaining period (Note 2)	3.93 years
Dividends estimated (Note 3)	¥600/share
No-risk interest rate (Note 4)	0.862%

- (Notes)
1. The stock price volatility was computed based on actual stock prices from February 3, 2004, to January 7, 2008.
  2. Given the difficulty in making a reasonable estimate without the sufficient accumulation of data, the estimate was made based on the assumption that the stock options are exercised around the halfway point of the exercise period of the options.
  3. The computation is based on actual dividends paid from January 1, 2007, to December 31, 2007.
  4. The yield rate of government bonds during the estimated remaining period.

3. Method to estimate the number of rights for stock options ascertained

Because it is difficult to rationally estimate the number of rights that will become invalid in the future, we adopt a method to reflect only the number of rights actually invalidated.

4. Effects on consolidated financial statements

Stock compensation expense included in selling, general and administrative expenses: ¥30 million

Gain on reversal of stock acquisition rights: ¥2 million

Fiscal year ended March 31, 2009 (April 1, 2008–March 31, 2009)

2. Method to estimate the fair unit price evaluated for stock options

The estimation method of the fair unit price of the stock options granted during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2009 is as follows.

Third and fourth 2008 stock options

[1] Evaluation method used: the Black-Scholes model

[2] Major basic values and method of estimate

Stock price volatility (Note 1)	54.38%
Estimated remaining period (Note 2)	4.5 years
Dividends estimated (Note 3)	¥2,800/share
No-risk interest rate (Note 4)	1.04%

(Notes) 1. The stock price volatility was computed based on actual stock prices from April 2, 2004, to October 2, 2008.

2. Given the difficulty in making a reasonable estimate without the sufficient accumulation of data, the estimate was made based on the assumption that the stock options are exercised around the halfway point of the exercise period of the options.

3. The computation is based on actual dividends paid most recently.

4. The yield rate of government bonds during the estimated remaining period.

3. Method to estimate the number of rights for stock options ascertained

Because it is difficult to rationally estimate the number of rights that will become invalid in the future, we adopt a method to reflect only the number of rights actually invalidated.

4. Effects on consolidated financial statements

Stock compensation expense included in selling, general and administrative expenses: ¥28 million

Gain on reversal of stock acquisition rights: ¥71 million
